

Championship Rings and Awards Policy

---

In accordance with current State regulations, only students are eligible to receive championship rings and other awards which have more than a nominal value and are purchased with institutional funds. Employees of the State are compensated for their services through the payroll process and are not eligible for such awards paid from State funds.

November 1, 1995