

Appendix

Students and Applicants for Admission

Students and applicants for admission with disabilities including, but not limited to, employment that is contingent upon an individual's status as a student, including but not limited to resident assistants, teaching assistants, graduate assistants and college work study, are coordinated by the University's Center of Educational Access (CEA). University of Arkansas students with disabilities, including Graduate Assistants, should contact CEA for academic accommodations or workplace accommodations. The information can be found on the University's Center of Educational Access website: <http://cea.uark.edu>. Contact information is as follows:

Center for Educational Access
209 ARKU University of Arkansas
Fayetteville, AR 72701
(479) 575-3104 (office)
(479) 575-7445 (fax)
(479) 575-3646 (tdd)
ada@uark.edu

A student who believes that he or she has been denied access or accommodations required by law due to their disability should consult the University's policy regarding Section 504/ADA Student Grievance Procedure, which is available at: <http://cea.uark.edu/grievanceprocedure.php>.

A student who believes that he or she has been subjected to discrimination on the basis of disability should consult with the Office of Equal Opportunity and Compliance (OEOC) at <http://oeoc.uark.edu>.